

Shepherd's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Good Shepherd Sunday. Holy Hour today to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. “Pray that the Lord of the harvest send laborers into his harvest.”

Do you lunge? I need to make the annual reminder regarding the reception of Holy Communion. This sacrament should be received in a passive posture. As a total gift of God, we do not do anything to earn this gift. It is entirely fitting therefore that we don't reach out and grab the gift—this would even be rude at a birthday party. Be motionless and allow the sacred minister to come to you. Cover your bottom lip with your tongue; not under the lip, but on top. For most people this only requires a 1/2 extension. The tongue is a muscle: it should not be tense but relaxed—flat, wide, and pliable. The more relaxed, the more motionless.

Most importantly, please close your eyes at least the last moment before receiving. This will prevent you from lunging forward subconsciously. Lunging can be done with the shoulders, neck, jaw, tongue or all four. Yes, most people who keep their eyes open will be a lunger. Don't be a lunger; close your eyes. This is safe and effective! Thank you!

Home Visits. I would like to spend time with you at home. I am open most Saturday evenings for this purpose. Please let me know if a coming future Saturday will be convenient for you. (I have other days and time too, just ask.)

Upset. I hired a craftsman without verifying his bona fides. Big mistake. This winter I sent some liturgical items away for gold plating. I've been so upset about it, I'm been speechless. A parish ciborium needed a crack repaired and new gold plating. The plating is beautiful but the repair is not done correctly (I could have used hot glue myself!) so the ciborium can't be used. In addition, my personal paten was replated beautifully but appeared with a new crack, so I can't use it either. Now the ciborium has to be repaired properly, and the replating redone, again, which means the $1,500 is totally wasted. I apologize to you. I will have to travel to find a craftsman with a stellar reputation.

Thank you for your continued spiritual and material support of the parish. Let us pray for each other,

- Fr. Rob Novokowsky, FSSP
