So, doing any good reading for Lent?

I don't mean podcasts, posts or articles.

There are many good books in the parish library.

Don't be embarrassed that you missed the first week or so.

We'll assume you finished your first book already,
which is really good.

What's next then?

Well, blank-ish.

Blanket.

My wife said duck down comforters are way better than the polyester kind.

I said, be careful about making such blanket statements.
